INTRODUCTION

ETHAN HALL
Business Director

I started at InterEx Group at the age of 19 as a Trainee/Delivery Consultant where I worked directly under our CEO. He gave me access to the best 'current' training program which ensures any trainee can be successful within recruitment with no structural limitations or red tape. I have been able to progress through 4 different promotional bands within 4 out of the 6 years of me being here.

“The Training Academy really set me up for when I went out onto the floor, I went out feeling confident and well-prepped and that was all due to the InterEx Training Academy. The opportunities are endless now.”

WHY YOU'LL LOVE RECRUITMENT

COMPETE TO WIN

The potential rewards in recruitment are phenomenal- top performing Recruiters can earn some serious money....but that's not the only reason. You get enormous satisfaction from helping others and building relationships. Recruitment really does give you the chance to make a difference.

GREAT TEAM

The world of recruitment is often fast-paced and no two days are the same. You'll be dealing with new people, new roles and new deadlines every day. This is particularly great if you're the kind of person who quickly becomes bored with repetitive daily tasks.

TRULY REWARDING

In recruitment, you're working to hit your targets. This means that you can very easily see how well you're doing and work your way up the ladder and take control of your success. It's almost like running your own business within a business. Unlike many professions, recruiters have a great deal of autonomy over their day-to-day workload.
